DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgment

1. The amendment filed on 11/28/2005 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 1, the phrase "two wheels respectively rotatably mounted to the first side of a corresponding wheel mount of the wheel holders" is not clear, because claim 1, line 9, recites "a first side adapted for rotatably receiving a wheel". It is not sure how many wheel or whether a wheel in line 9, the same with two wheel in line 14.

Regarding claim 1, the phrase "a corresponding wheel mount of the wheel holders" is not clear, whether it is the same with "a wheel mount" as recited in line 8.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chang (5,813,503).

Chang in figures 1-5A, disclose a portable casing comprising a hollow body (10) having four sides, a bottom with four edges and four corners. Chang also discloses two cavities (14) defined in one side of the body adjacent the bottom, two wheel holders mounted respectively in the cavities, each wheel holder includes a base (41) securely attached in a corresponding one of the cavities and a wheel mount (42) pivotally coupled to the base. The wheel mount has a first side adapted for rotatably receiving a wheel (43) and an opposing second side. The pivotal coupling being located adjacent one of the edges of the bottom (see figure 4B) and the wheel mount being displaceable from a first position within the corresponding cavity (see figure 4B) to a second position where the second side of the wheel mount is contiguous the bottom and the second side extends therefrom (see figure 5B), wherein the first side of the wheel mount has at least two wheels.

Regarding claim 8, Chang discloses the cavities, which are defined in one side of the body near the bottom and each wheel mount is inverse U-shaped and has one end pivotally connected to the base.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 8 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Castanier discloses a suitcase with rollers, Verheij et al. disclose a suitcase frame.
